PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, it is significant and beneficial for the State of South Dakota to increase and promote public respect and appreciation for the vitally important protective and rescue work which firemen are performing at great risk to their own lives and limbs;

NOW, THEREFORE, I FRANK L. FARRAR, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 1, 1969, as in South Dakota in memory and tribute to the many courageous and heroic firemen who have been killed or disabled during the performance of their official duties.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 30th day of September in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-nine.

Frank L Farrar
